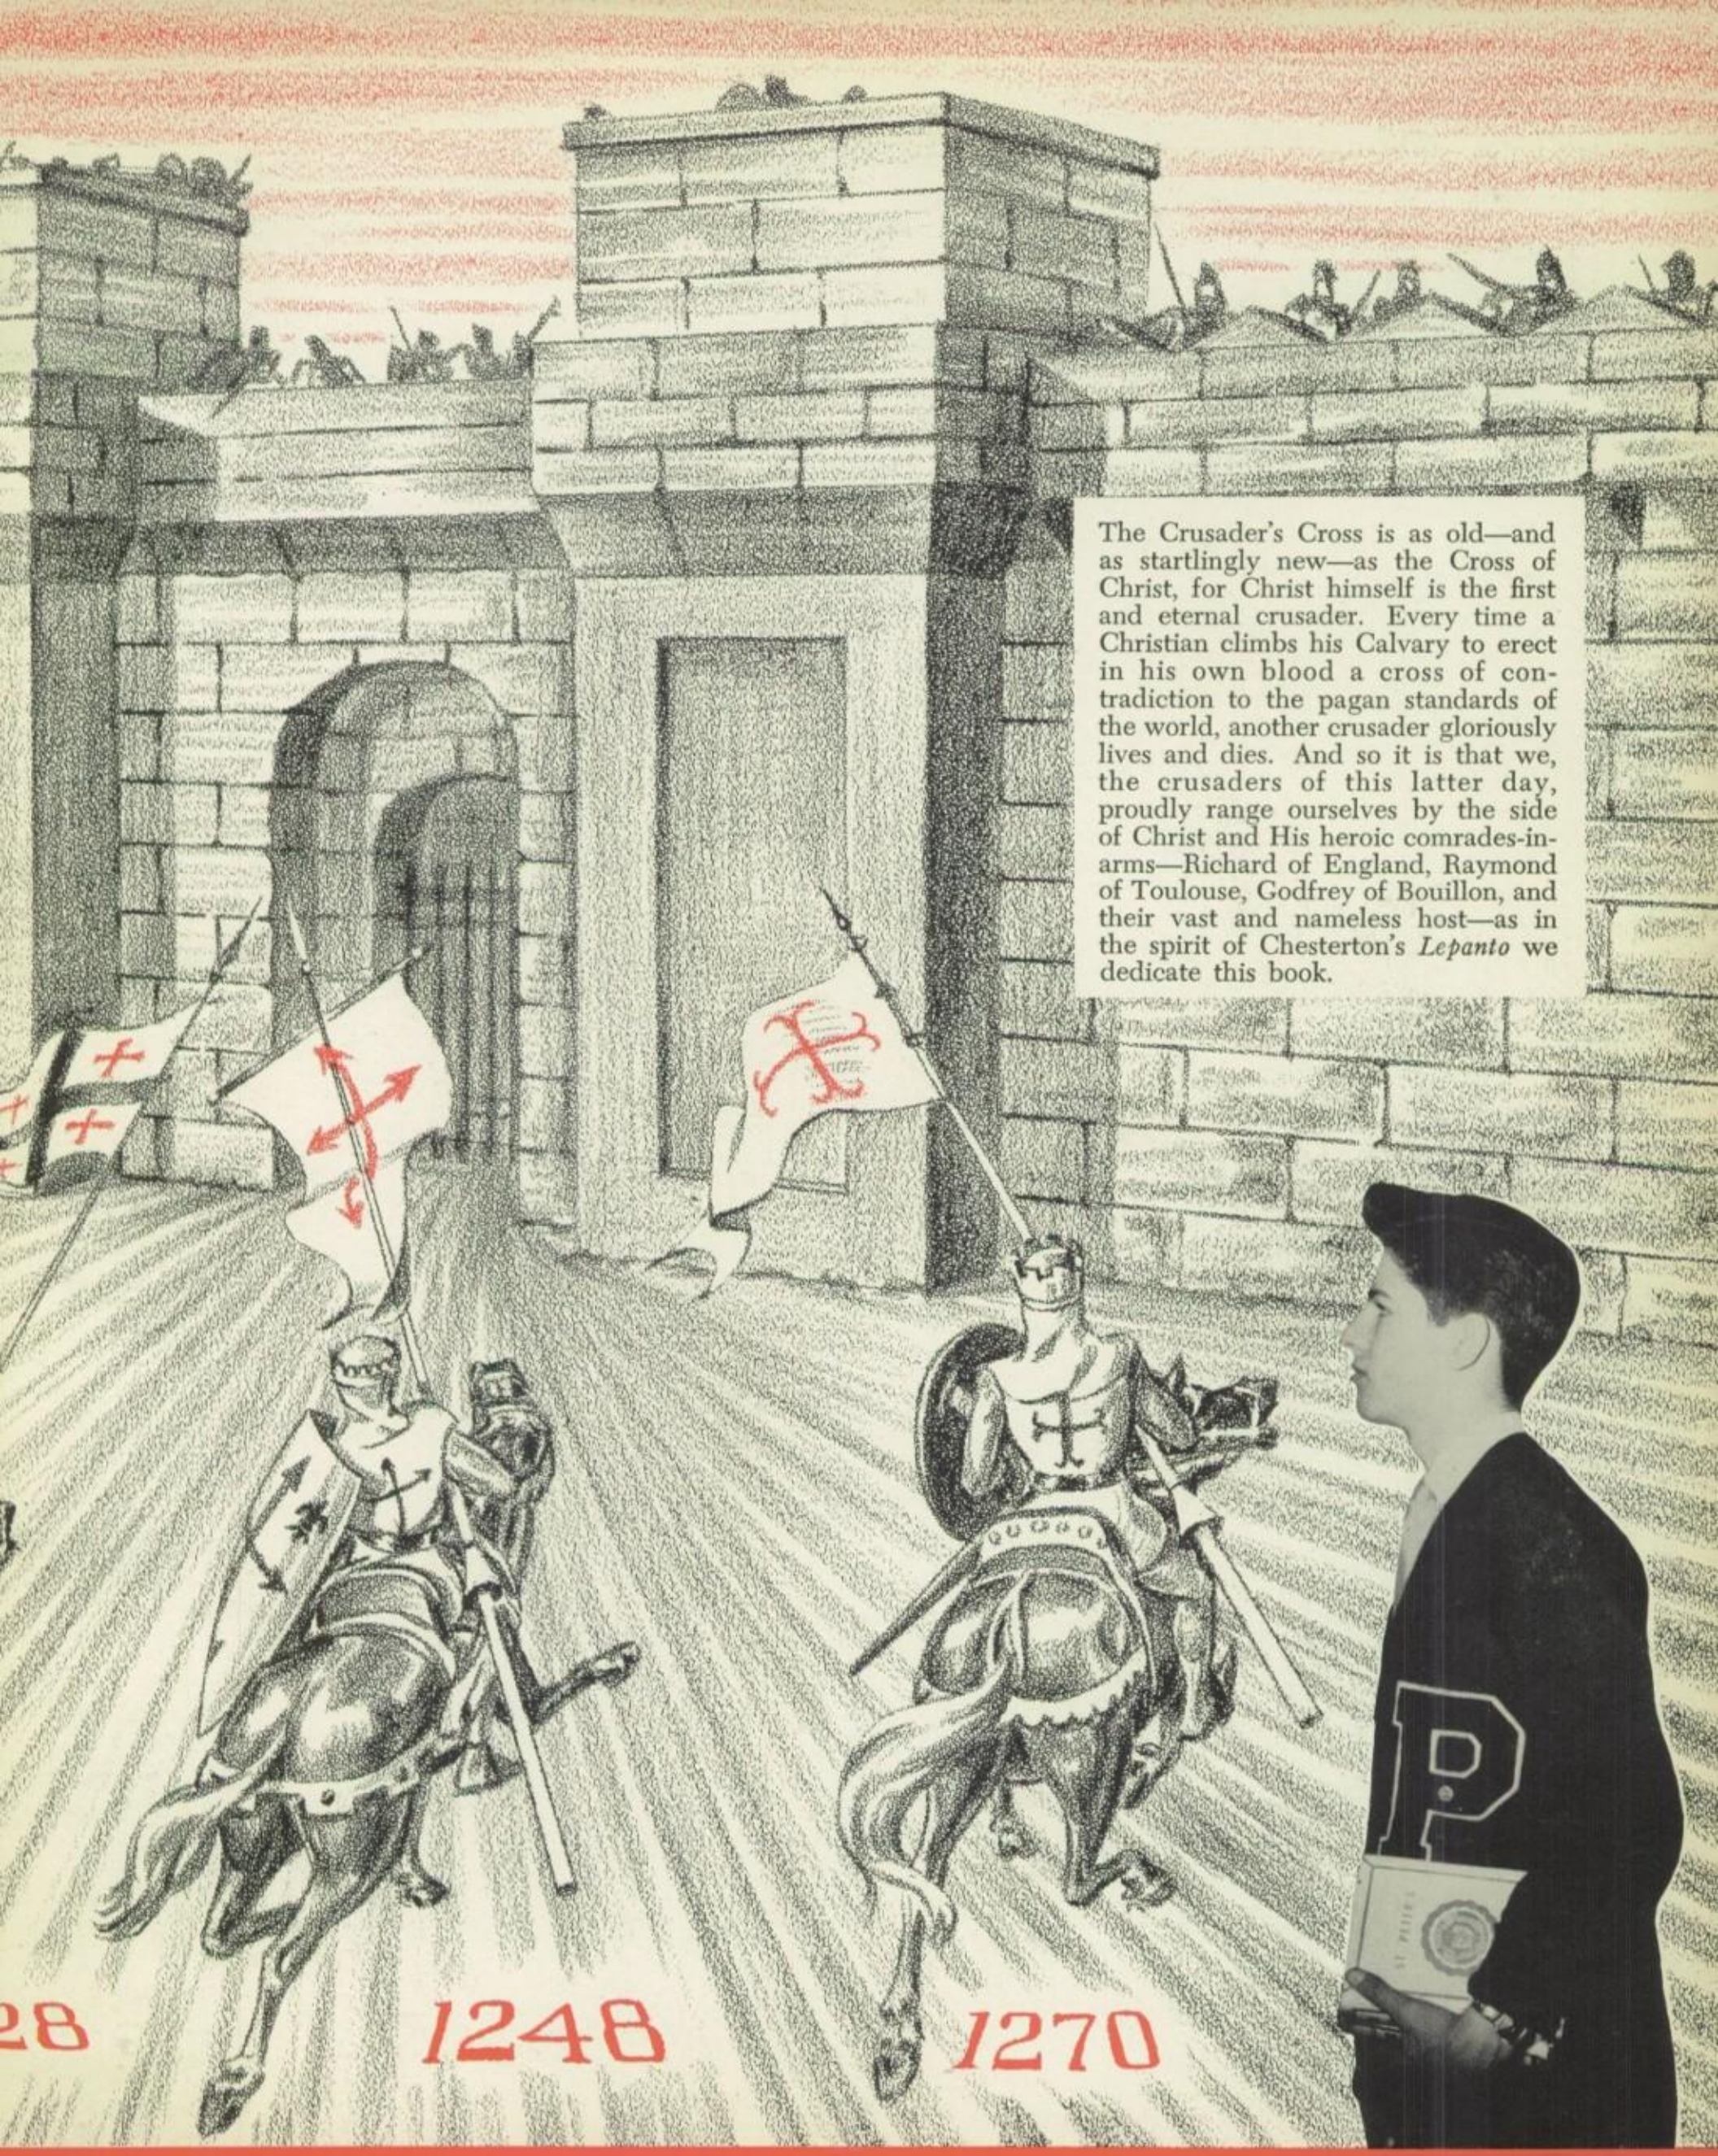
The SENIORS Present . . .

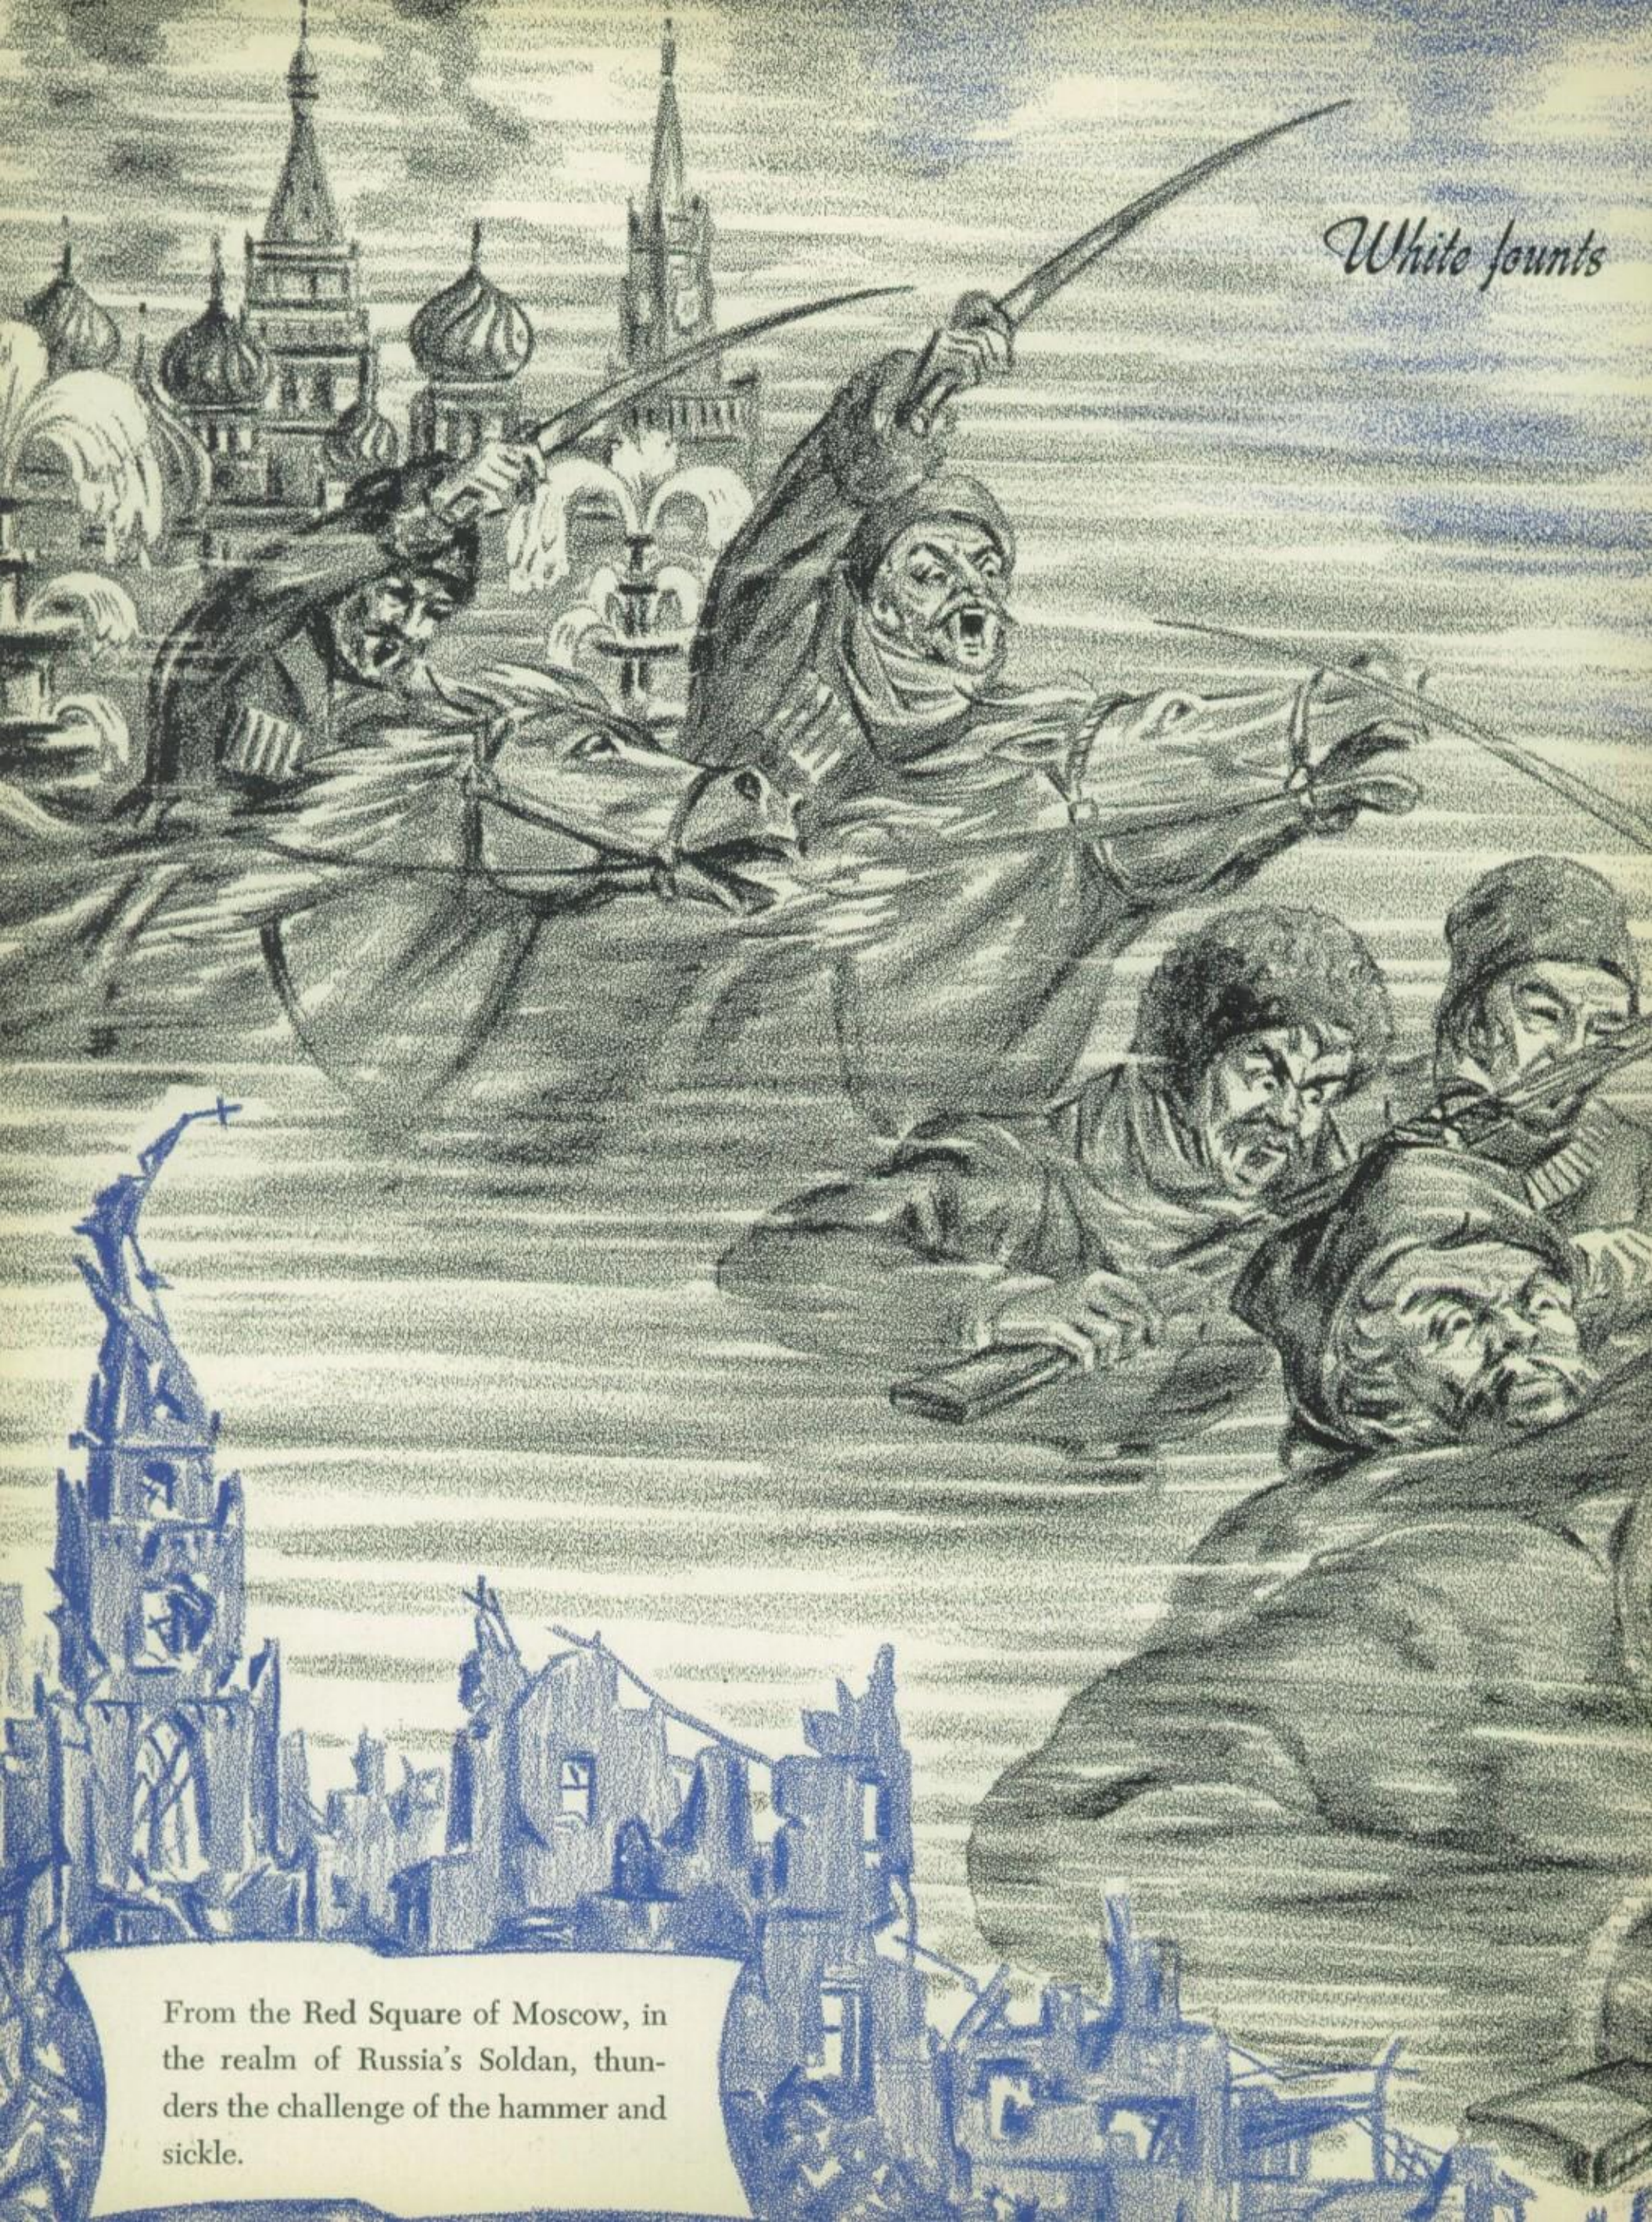
The Petrean

Saint Peter's Preparatory



The Crusader's Cross is as old—and as startlingly new—as the Cross of Christ, for Christ himself is the first and eternal crusader. Every time a Christian climbs his Calvary to erect in his own blood a cross of contradiction to the pagan standards of the world, another crusader gloriously lives and dies. And so it is that we, the crusaders of this latter day, proudly range ourselves by the side of Christ and His heroic comrades-in-arms—Richard of England, Raymond of Toulouse, Godfrey of Bouillon, and their vast and nameless host—as in the spirit of Chesterton's Lepanto we dedicate this book.

Jersey City • New Jersey 1951



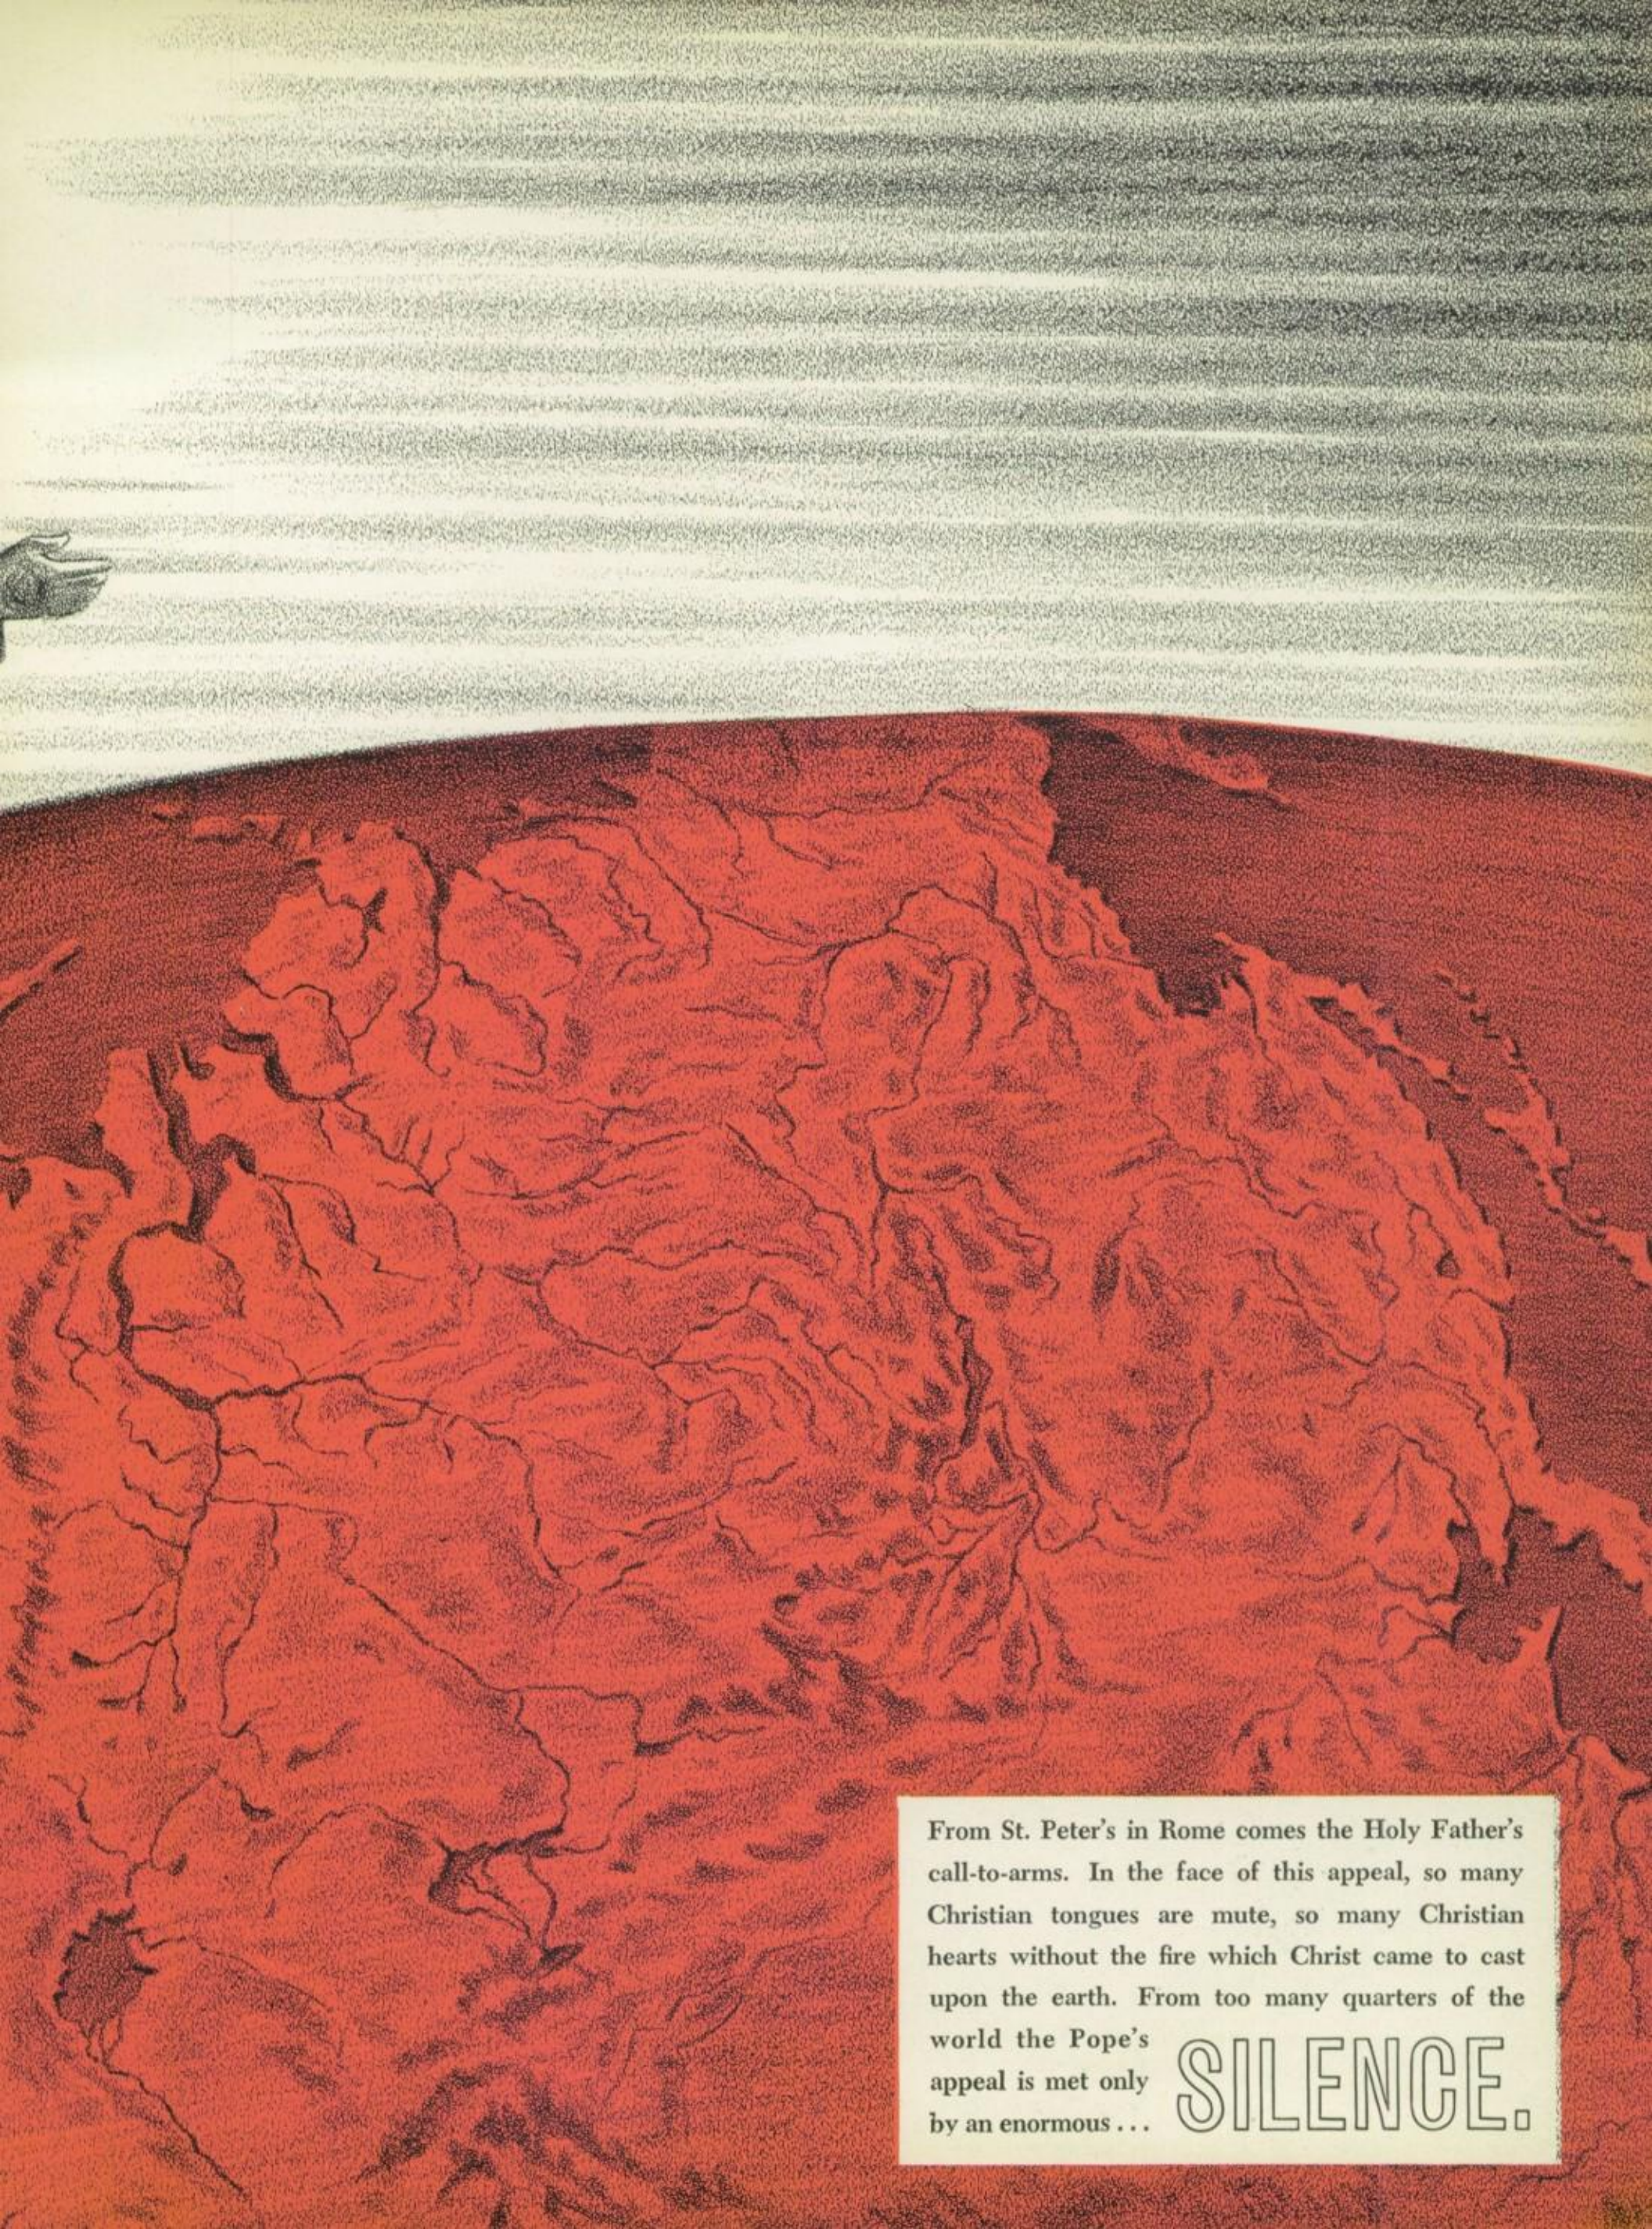
From the Red Square of Moscow, in the realm of Russia's Soldan, thunders the challenge of the hammer and sickle.

falling in the Courts of the Sun,

And the Soldan of Byzantium

is smiling as they run;

And the Pope has cast his arms abroad for agony and loss,
And called the kings of Christendom
for swords about the Cross.



From St. Peter's in Rome comes the Holy Father's call-to-arms. In the face of this appeal, so many Christian tongues are mute, so many Christian hearts without the fire which Christ came to cast upon the earth. From too many quarters of the world the Pope's appeal is met only by an enormous . . .

SILENCE.

In that enormous silence, tiny and unafraid,

Comes up along a winding road, the noise of the . . .

CRUSADE

In response to the Pope's appeal the men of Peter's rally round to fight the LAST CRUSADE; their weapons: prayer and Catholic Action. It will be the last crusade if this call-to-arms is answered, for there will be no need for any other. It will be the last crusade, too, if it is not heeded, for it means modern man's last chance to save the Christian way of life.

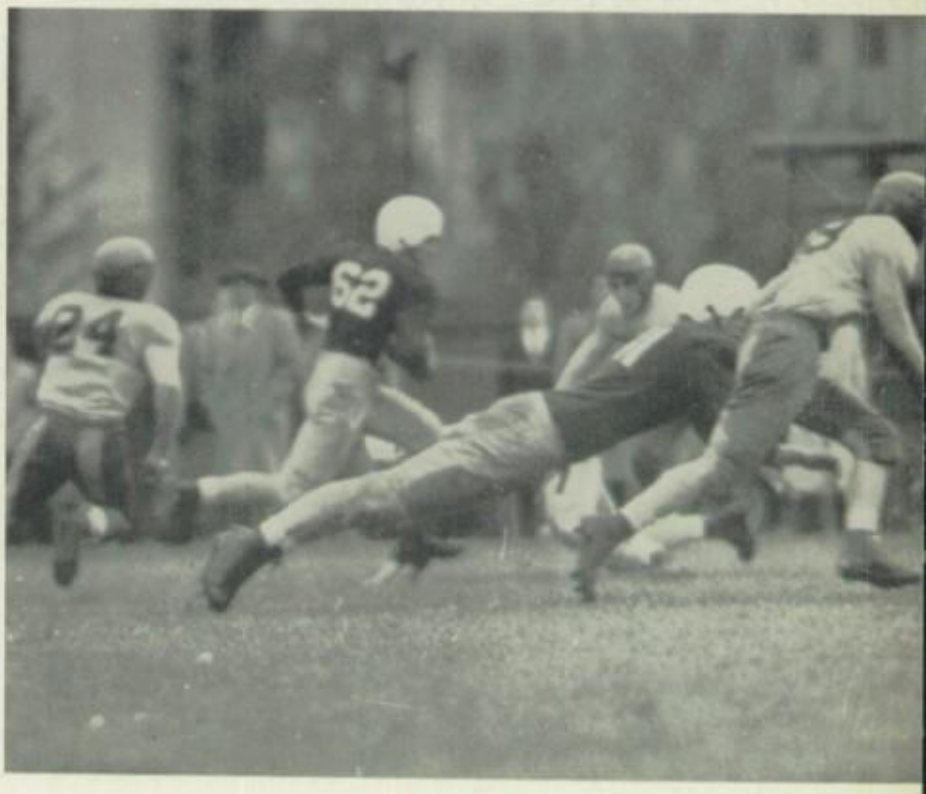
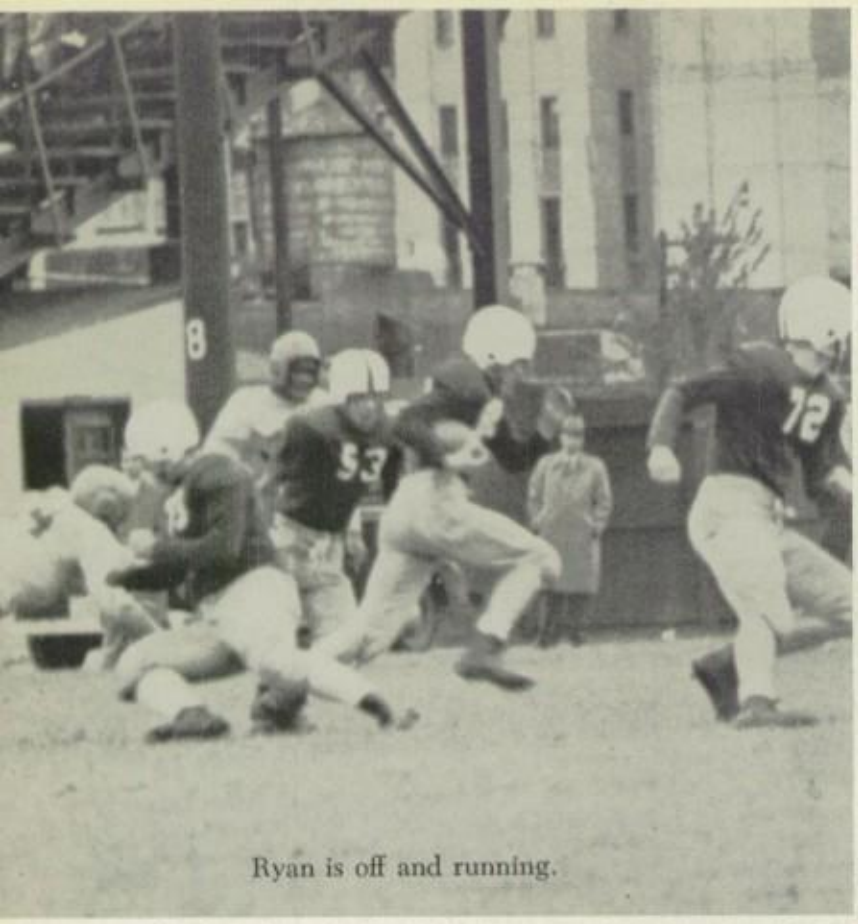
PREP 31



Ryan gains yardage.

Ahern drives as Conaghan watches.

The mighty Prep team opened its 1950 season in the old Grand Street tradition by blasting the Generals from Bayonne. Big Pat Feenan suffered a wrist injury while scoring the first Prep T. D. on an aerial from Mickey Hart. The Marauder ground attack was commanded by Don Ryan who hit pay dirt three times, while Don Ahern scored once.



Ryan is off and running.

PREP 33

The papers claimed that Ferris and the Prep would be evenly matched. But evidently the Marauders didn't read the papers, because they left no doubt that they were the better team. And it was really a team affair with Jim Fay, Mike Hart, Don Ryan and Pappacio each scoring once. Ferris finally got their chance to score when the bench went in.

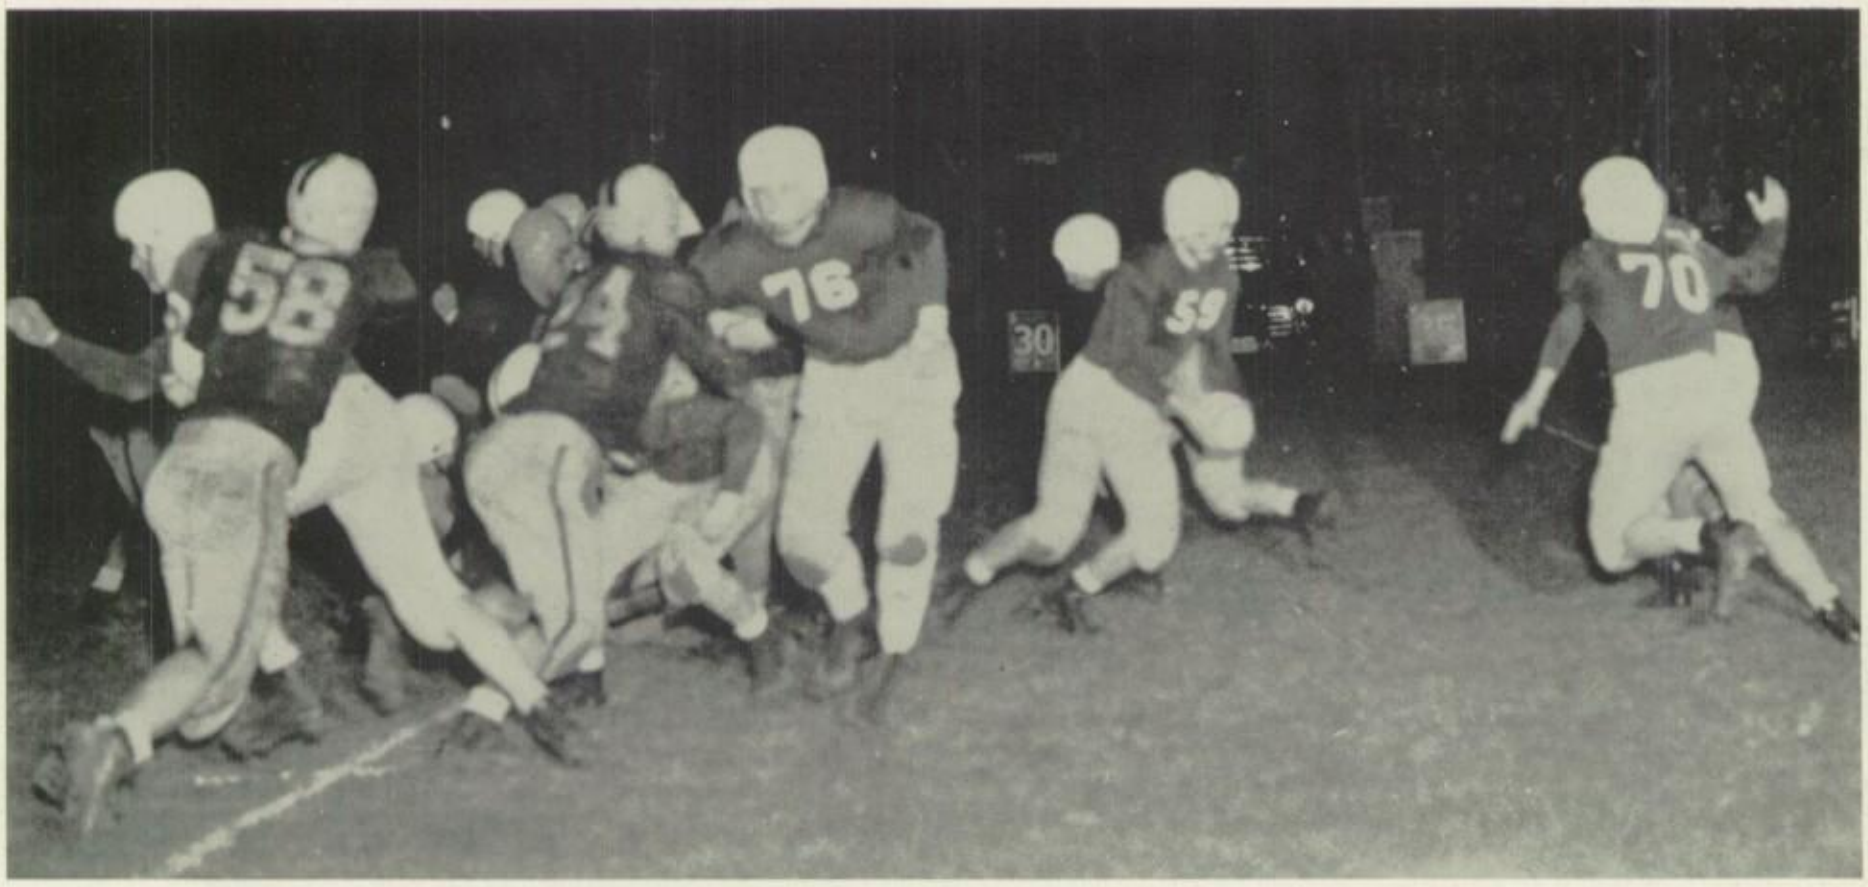
PREP 25 SNYDER 8

After a slow first quarter, Mickey Hart drove over for a T. D., but as the half ended Snyder tied the score 6-6. The second half saw Waddleton score twice and Hart tie still another knot in Snyder's tail. McHugh was caught behind his own goal for two points, but after this the Tiger was tamed.



Hart gives off to Waddleton.

PREP 12 SWEENEY 0

Prep, holding the Bees beyond their own 40, controlled the play throughout the game. Waddleton, Hart and Ahern lugged the ball to the 15, and on the Marauders' fourth drive Mills scored on a pass from Hart. Late in the fourth quarter, on the Petreans' eighth drive, Bob Moran, Prep's defensive back, carried it over from the two.

PREP 0 LINCOLN 21

The game opened on an ominous note as Simmons scored early for the Lions after a recovered fumble. On another Prep fumble, DiNardo scooted for Lincoln's second T. D. The half ended and Peter's summoned its strength for an unsuccessful third quarter blitz. In the second half, Borden plowed over from the 4, as a great Prep defense crumbled before the heavy Lincoln line.

PREP 7 MEMORIAL 38

The sky darkened over the stadium as the thundering horde from West New York scored on their third play. Lightning Bentzen rapidly struck twice more for a 20-0 half time score. As the second half opened, the Prep stole Memorial's thunder with a single resounding clap. Ahern scored the lone Prep T. D. after a pass by Hart had set up the play. Another Mem. T. D. and a pair of safeties; the rest is history.

Waddleton gives it the college try.

PREP 0 XAVIER 27

The Black Knights stormed across the Hudson, determined to avenge their previous losses and cop the "Father McCarthy Trophy". The Prep fielded a spirited eleven but the one-two punch of Bianco-Kelly was too powerful for the courageous Marauders whose only bright spot was Donnie Ryan. And once the Kaydet line halted his sparkling runs the waning hopes of the Maroon went into total eclipse.

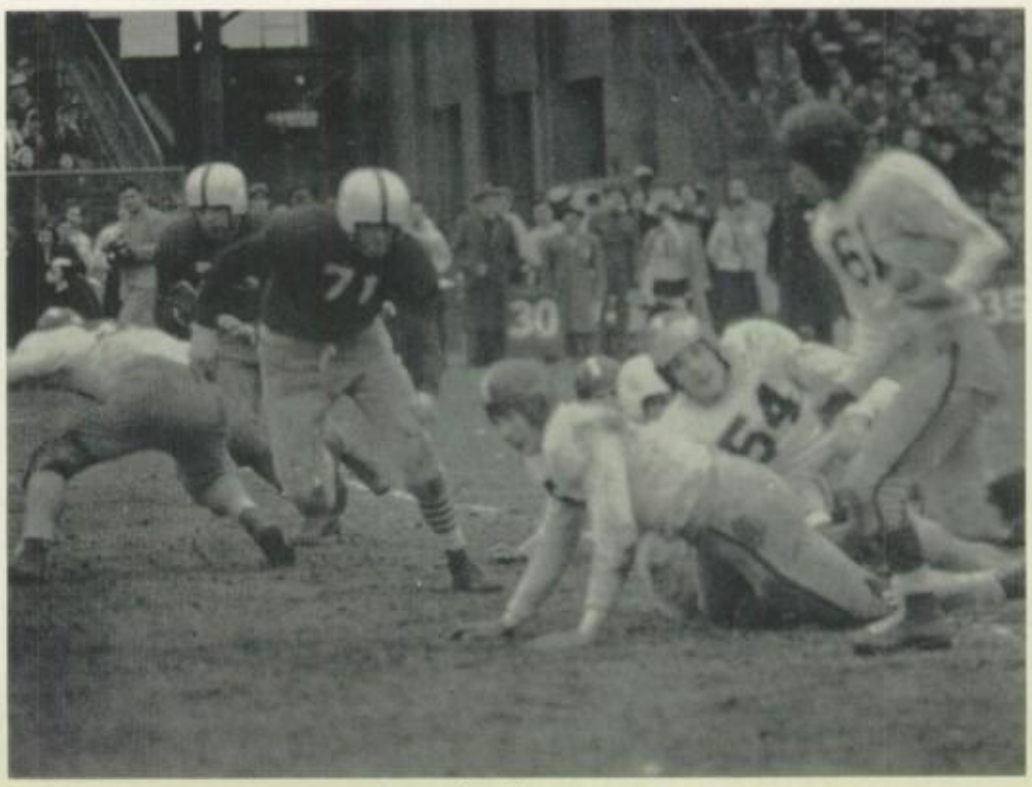
PREP 6 DICKINSON 25

Although in high spirits over the traditional game with the Hilltop eleven, the Petreans could not lift themselves out of their slump. Berrans led the Dickinson attack with a quick T. D. Ryan, Prep's sparkplug, knotted it at 6-6. D'Elia and Rosato united forces to crush the Marauders with three more T. D.'s and bring a .500 season to a close . . . but "Defeat may serve as well as victory, to shake the soul and let the glory out".



Conaghan lies in wait.

Ahern sweeps the end.

Hart looks for a receiver.

Acknowledgments

We, the Staff of the 1951 Petrean, would like to express our sincere appreciation to all those who made the publication of this book possible:

To the School Officers of Administration

To the members of the Faculty

To our families and friends, our Patrons and our advertisers, whose financial help made this book possible.

JERSEY CITY . . .

offers the utmost in opportunity to the graduate after he completes his college education

A more profitable business operation and greater stability of employment are the natural benefits to be enjoyed from a location that is well chosen from the standpoint of nearby markets, adequate transportation for raw and finished products, satisfactory labor and living conditions, economical land and rental costs, low cost essential services and a fair, just and economical administration. Jersey City, the home of thousands of industries, has good reason to feel it fits the bill in all those advantages which the graduate seeks. Over 5,000 different articles are manufactured by Jersey City's diversified plants and factories, ranging from soap to locomotives.
